Group Tours & Workshop PACKAGES

Ken Duncan's Gallery on the NSW Central Coast is an expansive, purpose-built facility – one of the largest privately owned photographic galleries in Australia. Set amidst a beautiful blend of natural bush and landscaped gardens, the Gallery features spacious viewing rooms and an intimate state-of-the-art theatre showcasing Ken's audio-visual presentations. You will find plenty of on-site parking and disabled access to all areas.

Ken Duncan Gallery is the perfect destination for your next group outing.

Our attractive packages for tour and special interest groups provide a guided tour of the gallery, plus the opportunity to see one of Ken's breathtaking audio-visual presentations.

Our Photographers package options are a great way of learning more about photography. Whether you are looking to buff up on your photography skills with friends, organise a team building activity, or an outing for your photography club, a Ken Duncan photography workshop is loads of fun and the fastest route to levelling up your photography game.

Dining and catering options can be arranged with Kew Dining, adjoining the Gallery. The modern café and restaurant offers an experience cuisine lovers yearn for - straightforward, unique food with an edge of creativity, served with great confidence and meticulousness. There is a lovely air of serenity about Kew Dining.
